5TH ELTA REGIONAL CONFERENCE

NOVEMBER 4-5, 2010
BERAT, ALBANIA

Professionalism Awakens
our students' Sleeping Devil

EXPECTED PARTICIPATION:

150

ORGANIZERS:

FITORE SULEJMANI

Deputy Director of "Kristo Isak" School, Berat, Albania
Vice-President of ELTA, Albania

AIMS:

- Provide participants with ways, techniques and procedures that enable update their instruction and improve student involvement and collaboration.
- Help build teacher confidence as a necessary prerequisite in building student independence and freedom in knowledge acquisition.
- Provide opportunities for enrichment and exchange.
- Strengthen networking and collaboration nationwide and in the region.

BERAT HAS QUITE A GOOD EXPERIENCE IN ORGANIZING EVENTS IN CONNECTION TO ENGLISH TEACHING DUE TO:

- A good number of university graduates, who are growing in their teaching experience
- A strong motivation in trying to introduce change into the English classroom
- A successful attempt to make Berat a centre in the South of Albania, where teachers of this region get together, in an exchange of ideas, environments, faces, presenters, colleagues, locations, and learn from experiences.
- Previous four regional events make us believe we have gained enough experience and confidence to have "the right" of organizing a fifth conference in Berat.

WHY US?

- Long experience in teaching.
- Good organizational skills.
- Supportive staff, headmasters, local directors, and external help and assistance.
- Excellent collaboration with every actor and stakeholder.
- Encouraging feedback from previous activities.
